EDITORIAL

At the time of writing this intro we require 9 points from our final five league games, to be sure of promotion. It's a situation that most of us would have settled for at the beginning of the season, yet due to the almost non-stop winning of the current Wycombe side the last month has been seen to be a poor month by some people. In fact the team were unbeaten last month although successive draws against Harrow and Tooting did mean a slip of four points relative to Yeovil. It was sickening to hear some of the crowd abusing their own players during the Harrow game and even more disturbing to hear reports of certain individuals tormenting players at Worthing with claims that they "weren't trying to win" and "don't want promotion". Are these people serious or are they trying to be funny? It's certainly not funny for the rest of us who show respect for the players. Perhaps they think that paying £1.50 entitles you to such behaviour which at the end of the day is not only pig ignorant, stupid and boring to the rest of mankind but could also damage the long term future of the Club by destroying the confidence of the players and frightening away great and potentially great players from Wycombe Wanderers Football Club.

To redress the balance somewhat it should be said that the support home and away this season has been outstanding and could well prove to be a decisive factor in our final games of the season - the last three of which are away from home. Homes game with Barking and Carshalton are followed by a potentially difficult game at Bognor on Monday April 13. The Berks & Bucks Final at Wolverton with Slough or Aylesbury is sandwiched by visits to Hitchin and Dulwich and by the time we play Barnet in the two legged Presidents Cup Final we will know our fate - keep your heads and keep praying.

A VIEW FROM THE TERRACES

by Simon Burrage.

"Full of players who can score goals" was how I described Alan Gane's team in the last edition of Chairboys Gas. Famous last words! By the time the edition was on sale, the Wanderers had suddenly become a team full of players who could score goals but had temporarily stopped doing so. Well, at this stage of the season and with so much at stake, it wasn't going to take much to give the Club and its supporters a severe attack of the jitters, so a spell of one win in six league games was more than enough to get us sweating. Just to make things worse, it seems that Yeovil may finally have found the kind of consistency under new manager Brian Hall that we expected them to show all season. But some perspective must be kept; we are still in a very commanding position and as long as everyone concentrates on keeping their head rather than howling for others to have theirs chopped off whenever things start getting difficult, we will win the Championship - but I've a feeling it's going to be very close come late April. Speaking of late April, we now have another Berks & Bucks Final to look forward to (even if it is at Wolverton). Few Blues fans will need reminding of how depressing it was to attend a B&B Final at Slough, of all places, and against Aylesbury, of all people, just 24 hours after our nightmare exit from the Gola League had been confirmed last season. At Wolverton we will be facing either Slough or Aylesbury again, and by then we may already know if we are returning to the top flight. If we are going up, the satisfaction will be immense. If we are not...it doesn't bear thinking about, does it?

During March a Wycombe Wanderers player represented England for the first time since the FA's abolition of amateur status, when Noel Ashford appeared in the Semi-Professional international against Wales. I thought I might say a few words on the occasion because there were only a handful of Wycombe fans present (Gloucester is a hefty journey to do after work on Tuesday evening) and the Bucks Free Press report did have a 'second-hand' ring to it (whoever told them that Noel played up front that night was not watching the same game as me). Still, it was nice of the BFP to devote that much space to the report in any case. The BFP's 'sister' paper, The Midweek, would have much preferred a full page report on some tinpot no-hopers rugby match played on a local park, no doubt. You know, you pick up your Midweek and turn eagerly to the back page to read a report on our league match at Worthing - a match which may go some way to deciding whether or not WWFC wins the Championship, and a sporting event which two to three hundred High Wycombe people travelled to the South Coast to witness, and what do you get?! I'll tell you what you get, you get a ludicrous headline for a start: CHILTERN ARE THE GREATEST! Who the XXXX are CHILTERN, for Pete's sake? Well, if you don't already know, you read the full page report to find out that they are a local rugby club who beat another local rugby club to win a local rugby tournament. You can see from the photographs how MEGA-important this sporting occasion was to the people of South Bucks because there are 10 to 15 people standing at the touchline huddled under umbrellas looking so excited as that thrilling winning try is scored. Unfortunately they didn't publish a paying attendance figure, probably because there wasn't one, so we don't know if there may have been another 10 to 15 people standing elsewhere. Yeah, yeah, yeah. I know we should all be grateful for all(?) the publicity the Midweek and BFP give us - though god knows if often looks pathetically insignificant when you see how well other local papers like the Maidenhead Advertiser and Bucks Herald cover their local football clubs - but surely things should be kept in proportion, and we don't live in St Helens or Widnes, do we? (Yes I know that's Rugby League, not Rugby Union, so what). Anyway, perhaps the Midweek would be better named "Masuda's Weekly". Masuda? Yes, I mean Neil Masuda, that half-witted bore who for some time now has been allowed to half-fill each edition of the Midweek with his monumentally uninteresting reviews of some of the most uninspired pop music in existence. His articles show about as much originality as the insipid garbage he drones on about, and why he continues to peddle the dreary myth of their being a thriving Wycombe music scene is beyond me, and beyond 99% of all other Midweek readers. There's probably a lot of people around who would like to have a local newspaper in which to indulge themselves with their opinions on their friends and their bands and to publish their latest photos looking mean, moody and totally insignificant, but we all realise that this would be a complete bore to other readers, so why doesn't this bloke realise it?

Sorry, back to the England match. Well, there we were at Gloucester City's brand new ground, which was of particular interest because it's still possible that we may have a new ground one day (Hillbottom Road looks more unlikely now though, in view of the Council's new decision to oppose plans for any warehousing to be built on Loakes Park; if that is final, Westbruton will obviously have no further interest in the deal and with them goes the money and the new ground). Gloucester's ground, planned and built remarkably quickly, was very neat, tidy and compact with an excellent pitch and excellent floodlights, but the Club Chairman's claim that it was not far short of Football League standard was a little over-optimistic as the terracing amounted to little more than the basic concrete walkway and with just over 1,000 spectators it was not easy to find a decent view point. As for Noel, already the most capped England player at Semi-Professional level and now joint leading goalscorer, he was named as one of the substitutes which meant it looked likely that we had gone all that way for NOWT. But (un)fortunately Barnet's John Margerrison suffered an early knock and, with England a goal down, 'Ash' arrived on the scene and inspired an immediate England recovery - playing in more or less the same role as he is allowed by Alan Gane - running from midfield behind the front line. The goal he scored to give England the lead was quite stunning - the ball dropped to him 20 yards out for him to send a screamer of a volley high into the net. If it hadn't been for a careless piece of misjudgement of a high ball by Enfield's over-rated 'keeper Andy Pape with 5 minutes left it would have been the winner as well. In Pape's defence I should acknowledge the fact that there was a strong wind blowing down the pitch - and while on the subject of Pape's defence, I can definitely say that Kirk Corbin would have fitted very easily into the England back four. Come to think of it, our Kirk could probably do a decent job in Bobby Robson's back four!

DO THEY MEAN US? investigated by Steve Maguire

This month you may have already seen some of the papers discussed here, due to the recent spate of games against fairly local opposition. Of the others The South London Press did their usual piece on Tooting after our game there, i.e. big enough to fit on a postage stamp and reading it you would have got the impression that it was a close game, if anything, Tooting deserving to win.

You can normally expect to get a better standard of reporting in the Maidenhead Advertiser and this was the case when they covered the Wycombe/Marlow B&B game. A good preview the week before and a reporter and photographer at the match, but let's compare their comments on the first of our two penalties with the Bucks Free Press. "...Neil Price was unmercifully chopped down" said the Free Press, but according to the Advertiser "...Neil Price fell over Toll's outstretched leg".

For those of you who thought that it was too cold to leave your fire-sides could have heard a report of the Marlow game during the Sports Summary on Radio 210 at ten o'clock that night. I am told that 210 also did a short report of our Berks & Bucks game with Windsor but they only had time to list the scorers.

If there is anyone who is still not sure who was sent-off during the league game at Windsor, Chairboys Gas can confirm that the man to go was the Windsor Captain, John McDaid. The other thing people don't seem to be able to agree on is why McDaid was sent-off, was it for swearing or was it for dissent? Either way Windsor boss, John Clements, was rather critical of the referee's decision, although he appears to have made no comment about the reason for McDaid getting upset (our second goal). Maybe like most other people in the ground he couldn't see anything wrong with it.

All the Slough papers were full of praise for Trevor Bunting's performance after the 'big' derby, whilst after having a dig at Alan Davies in an earlier issue of CG, it was good to read his comments about us when he said "they are one of the best supported teams I have seen in the league....they have upped gates everywhere they have gone..." I think Tooting, Worthing and Carshalton would agree with that in view of our travelling support in recent weeks.

I don't know who wrote the report of the Wycombe/Harrow game in the Harrow Observer, but their choice of phrase seems rather appropriate when you read that "..Borough battled to a draw". They also added that Rob Johnson was "dismissed in controversial circumstances after he appeared to clash with home striker Declan Link, who escaped unpunished" (?) Rather ironic to see Steve Bateman (the player who should have gone) trot out alongside Declan the following afternoon in the VOL v Multipart League game at Hendon, a match that ended 2-2.

There was a familiar face at the Abingdon game, that of Mike Knox, formerly of the Bucks Free Press. Mike was covering the game for the Abingdon Herald and claimed that Abingdon should have had a penalty just moments before we opened the scoring. Apparently a number of Wycombe players admitted after the game that Declan had handled the ball in his own area, but the referee missed it.

Finally speaking of missing things, did you see the league table in the Free Press on March 27? Yeovil appear to have resigned from the league!

Former Reading striker, Gary Donnellan has left Wealdstone to join up with his former boss, Brian Hall, at YEOVIL TOWN. The 32 year old striker joins Paul Miller, Steve Rutter and Andy Wallace who are also playing under their former Wealdstone manager at Huish.

Moving in the other direction from Yeovil are Alan Pardew and Curtis Warmington. Pardew was signed by Second Division Crystal Palace for a £7,000 fee while Warmington, who like Pardew joined Yeovil from Dulwich, has teamed up with his former boss, Billy Smith, at Carshalton. Yeovil recently missed out on a place in the final of the A C Delco Cup, losing 4-0 on aggregate to HENDON. Yeovil players, officials and supporters were made to travel twice to Hendon for the second leg as the Claremont Road pitch failed a late inspection due to flooding and the game was delayed 24 hours. Yeovil lost both legs 2-0 with a crowd of 1,199 at Huish.

Hendon's opponents in the A C Delco Cup Final will be BOGNOR REGIS TOWN who overcame Basildon 6-4 on aggregate after losing the first leg at Bognor 2-1. 'The Rocks' will provide a tough test for 'The Blues' in the final run-in to the season although manager Jack Pearce is now unable to call on the services of ex-Wanderer Josef Blochel. Joe was unable to find work in the area and accepted a three year contract with his former club in Sweden. Pearce has also lost John Crumplin, who has joined Brighton for a fee of £3,500 and 'keeper Alastair Sperring due to work commitments. Bognor have also reached the final of the Sussex Senior Cup where they will play Arundel at the Goldstone Ground, Brighton.

There were problems for HITCHIN TOWN last month when they played WINDSOR & ETON at Top Field. Trailing 1-0 to a 52nd minute goal from Ian Richards, Hitchin defender Andy Paine sent a weak back pass to 'keeper Tony Luff only for Royalist Selvin Campbell to intercept and make the score 2-0. Luff was obviously upset by the action of his defender and flattened him with one blow. The referee, Mr Tony Williams from Wycombe, had no option but to send off Luff for violent conduct and with Barry O'Keefe taking over in goal, Windsor scored further goals through Rowan Dodds, Selvin Campbell and Steve Cordery to record Windsor's second away league success of the season.

Windsor's first away win of the season had come ten days early at a much improved WALTHAMSTOW AVENUE side. Avenue recorded their first home win of the season when they thrashed Hayes 3-0 at Green Pond Road. However, the Club still look set for the drop and recently conceded their 100th league goal of the season. Assuming that other clubs survive ground grading problems the replacement for Avenue in the Premier Division next season looks like being the tenants of their ground, LEYTONSTONE/ILFORD.

HAYES have sold striker, Les Ferdinand to QPR for £15,000. No doubt QPR will be hoping that Ferdinand turns out to be another Cyril Regis who left Hayes in 1977 for First Division West Bromwich Albion for a fee that was eventually worth over £10,000 to the Middlesex club.

The Wanderers final league game of the season takes place at DULWICH HAMLET where manager, Micky Leach has registered himself to play for Hamlet in case of emergency in their fight to avoid the drop to Division One. The former QPR player has also signed Tony Lynch, the former Brentford striker, on loan from Maidstone and Garry Fiore a youngster from Wimbledon. Also moving to Champion Hill is Bobby Shinnars, a central defender, from Southern Premier side Fisher Athletic.

A C DELCO CUP Final

Bognor Regis Town v Hendon
(venue to be announced)

SEASON BY SEASON

1926-7

SUMMARY by Steve Maguire.

The 1926/27 season saw the Wanderers finish with their lowest points total since joining the Isthmian League six years earlier. Two unexpected wins in our last two games, over Nunhead and Dulwich, were just enough to save us from having to apply for re-election. Dulwich were expected to finish higher in the league but they got behind with their league matches and were forced to play eleven games in the last two weeks of the season!

There were a few encouraging results for 'The Chairboys', who badly missed free scoring centre-forward Tommy Hinton who had signed professional for Millwall, with wins over league leaders Leytonstone and The Casuals (their first home defeat of the season). On the debit side there were heavy defeats at the Civil Service, Ilford and Dulwich (where we had Meakes sent-off). We also suffered two heavy defeats against the Champions, St Albans, who beat us 6-2 at Loakes Park (they were 6-0 up at one stage) and 9-0 on their own ground. The real nightmare, however, was saved for the F A Cup where after a hard fought game with Botwell Mission (now Hayes) we again conceded nine goals without reply to Slough!

In view of these results it was not too suprising that we had just one player in the Berks & Bucks representative side - 'keeper Jim Kipping. It was thanks to Kipping's display that we were not beaten by a bigger margin in the County Cup at Maidenhead.

Most critics tipped us to lose at home to Walthamstow Avenue when the Amateur Cup came around but two late goals from the visitors, who were well beaten, gave a rather false reflection of the game. We continued to upset the odds by seeing off a strong London Caledonians side that included five Amateur Internationals and the northern challenge of the works side, Chieton Colliery, before bowing out to the eventual cup winners, Barking. Our cup run was ended by a side that was unbeaten at home for fourteen months and after trailing by three goals, we managed to pull two goals back with the help of the backing of the many Wycombe supporters in the ground.

The gate receipts at Barking were £169 from a crowd of over six thousand, but this was bettered by the figures from the Berks & Bucks Senior Cup Final which was played at Loakes Park on Easter Monday. 8,647 paid £536 to see Slough beat Windsor. Easter was a busy time for the Club - on Good Friday a crowd of 3,957 saw Sands United beat Chalfont Wasps to win the Wycombe Challenge Cup, while on Easter Saturday 1,393 spectators watched a game between Berks & Bucks Juniors and Norfolk Juniors also at Loakes Park.

KIDDERMINSTER HARRIERS are the sole survivors from the GMVC in this season's F A Trophy. In their centenary season all that lies between The Harriers and a first ever Wembley visit is a two legged encounter with Fareham Town. Leading scorer Kim Casey recently hit his 32nd league goal of the season compared to a total of 36 last season.

On the league front SCARBOROUGH have taken over from Barnet as the new leaders of the GMVC following a record breaking run of 19 league games unbeaten stretching back to a 3-1 home defeat to Cheltenham Town on October 25 1986. The run is longest unbeaten sequence in the history of the Alliance and coincides exactly with the arrival of Kevin Blackwell in goal. Blackwell was signed by Boro' in October, ironically from Barnet where up to recently he had continued to train. Barnet manager Barry Fry put an end to his training at Underhill due to the embarrassment that may have been caused if Blackwell were to be injured. Boro' manager Neil Warnock recently returned to his old club Burton Albion for a quarter-final tie in the GMAC Cup. A crowd of 2,391 saw Albion progress to the semi-finals by a 3-1 margin.

BARNET had their worst month of the season when a 1-0 home defeat to Fareham in the quarter-finals of the F A Trophy was followed by valuable GMVC points being dropped at Kettering (1-1), at home to Cheltenham (0-1) and at Runcorn (1-1). Barnet's remaining fixtures are home games with Dagenham, Gateshead, Kettering and Stafford with visits to Bath, Stafford and Wealdstone completing their programme. Scarborough's run-in has home games with Runcorn, Welling and Weymouth and away fixtures at Bath, Kidderminster and Sutton United.

At the other end of the table GATESHEAD, WELLING and FRICKLEY ATHLETIC look the favourites for the drop but don't rule out Nuneaton, Kettering or Wealdstone. WEALDSTONE's final five games are home to Barnet, Enfield and Kidderminster plus visits to Altrincham and Dagenham.

Talk of ground moving and sharing schemes are currently at a high in both full and part-time football. Amongst those in the GMVC ready to move are NORTHWICH VICTORIA who look set to share Gresty Road, home of Fourth Division Crewe. 'The Vics' made desperate attempts to persuade the local council to purchase their Drill Field site and then lease it back to the club. Earlier in the season the GMVC rejected a sharing with Winsford United as Winsford's Barton Road Stadium fell short of GMVC standards. Crewe's ground is situated just over 10 miles from Northwich and 'The Vics' will remain their for at least one season.

WEALDSTONE have also announced their intention to move to a new stadium within the next two years. Their Lower Mead ground is placed in the centre of Harrow and has a market value of several million pounds. At present Lower Mead needs at least £150,000 spent to bring it up to Football League standard. The Aldenham bus depot in Elstree, approx. 6 miles from Harrow, is rumoured to be a possible site for the new ground.

Already on the move are WEYMOUTH whose new ground is well underway with the main stand now erected. The site of the new ground is the disused Wessex Speedway Stadium, about two miles from their present headquarters at The Recreation Ground. On completion of the new ground, hopefully for the start of next season, the lucrative site will be used for a new Superstore built by Carter Commercial Developments.

THE SOUTHERN FOOTBALL LEAGUE

Are points 'in the bag' better than games in hand? A question that is often asked in football and now relevant to the top of the Premier Division of the Southern League. A month ago it looked like FISHER ATHLETIC were running away with the Championship but a loss of form from the Dockland side and the continuation of AYLESBURY UNITED's remarkable run of success has thrown the title race wide open.

'The Ducks' entered April with 12 league fixtures to complete with the addition of a replays in the Bill Dellow Cup with Waterlooville on April 5, in the B&B with Slough Town on April 7 and with Maidstone in the GMAC Cup to look forward to. Playing three games a week for the remainder of the season Aylesbury take on Fisher at Buckingham Road on April 14 hoping to take revenge for a 2-1 reverse at Fisher during March. An attendance of just 357 witnessed that Saturday afternoon 'top of the table' clash at the Surrey Docks Stadium. Both Fisher and Aylesbury will find it difficult to reach the standards set by the GMVC ground grading regulations and the way may be left open for BROMSGROVE ROVERS or DARTFORD to step in. Fisher's work programme includes covering the side opposite the main stand, adding turnstiles, building a new boardroom and directors' box and adding a new toilet block. Aylesbury have recently fully opened their clubhouse but with a ground capacity of less than 3,000 and no terracing, facilities fall short of GMVC requirements.

Promotion is far from the thoughts of FAREHAM TOWN who continued their remarkable F A Trophy run with a 1-0 success at Barnet at the Quarter-Final stage to enter a Semi-Final confrontation with Kidderminster Harriers. Both legs will take place on a Sunday with the second leg taking place at The Dell in preference to Fareham's Cams Alders ground.

Also through to the Trophy Semi-Final from the Southern League are DARTFORD who overcame Nuneaton Borough before a 1,893 attendance at Manor Park. Dartford and Fareham are aiming to become the first Southern League club to reach the Trophy Final since Kettering in 1979.

Recent transfers in the Southern League are headed by the move of prolific scorer John Bartley from Maidstone to Chelmsford for a 'substantial four figure fee'. Moving away from New Writtle Street is Barry Silkman who has joined VOL Division One side Tilbury.

THE MULTIPART LEAGUE

The Multipart League, formerly known as the Northern Premier League, announced at the beginning of March that 'Multipart' are not to continue their sponsorship of the league championship next season. The present economic difficulties and changes in the truck industry are the reasons for the withdrawal by Multipart who have sponsored the League for the past two seasons. With the expansion to two Divisions next season, giving a more extensive coverage in the North of England than ever before, the League are confident of concluding a deal with another sponsor soon.

BURTON ALBION reached the semi-final stage of the F A Trophy for the second time in their history when they overcame Maidstone United, in a replay at Eton Park. Albion held the GMVC side to a 1-1 draw at London Road before a 1,659 gate before earning the chance to play Dartford in the two-legged semi-final with a 1-0 success at Burton in front of 3,136. Burton's last semi-final appearance came in 1975 when as a Southern League side they lost 2-1 over two-legs to the eventual winners Matlock Town.

BANGOR CITY have now established themselves as firm favourites to gain promotion to the GMVC. City were founder members of the Alliance Premier in 1979 - finishing 9th in the inaugural season. The following season a bottom placing saw relegation before a quick return a year later as Champions of the NPL. A 13th placing in their return season was followed in 1984 with a unique 'double' of a runners-up spot in the F A Trophy and relegation back to the NPL. Current manager, John Mahoney, has built a very strong squad that had four representatives in the recent England/Wales non-League international at Gloucester.
